

Nigerian Maternal And Child Health

Progress and challenges 2013-2023

OKOLI IFECHUKW
DATA AND BI ANALYST

115.30

U-5 Mortality...

18.67

Rate reduction U5...

609.51

Avg maternal death

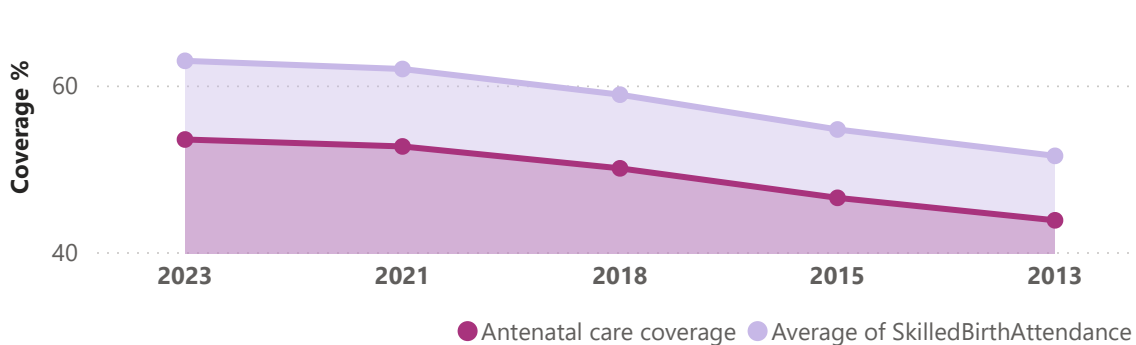

312.81K

Children saved since 2013

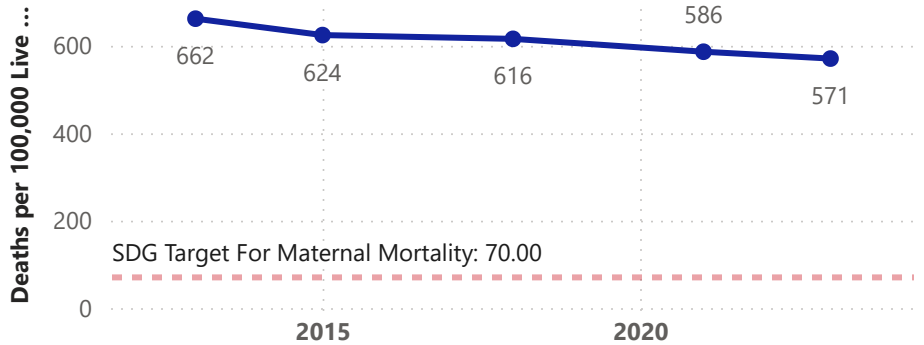

-2.10

YoY % Maternal...

Maternal Care Coverage

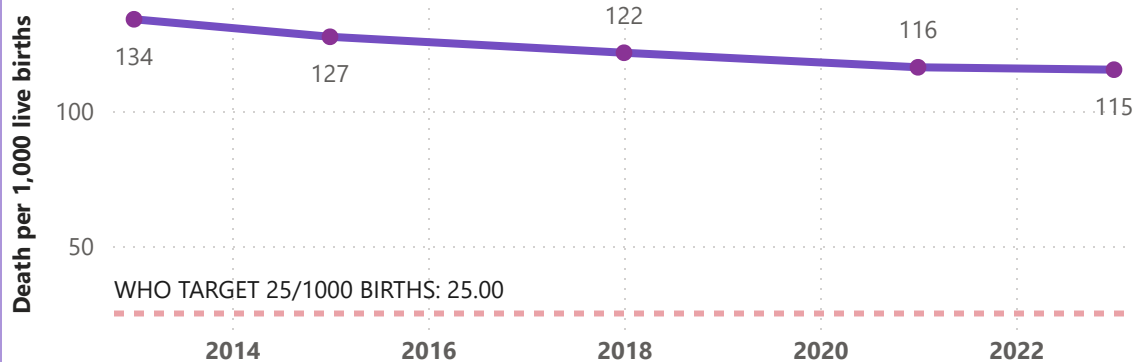

Maternal Mortality Trend (2013-2023)

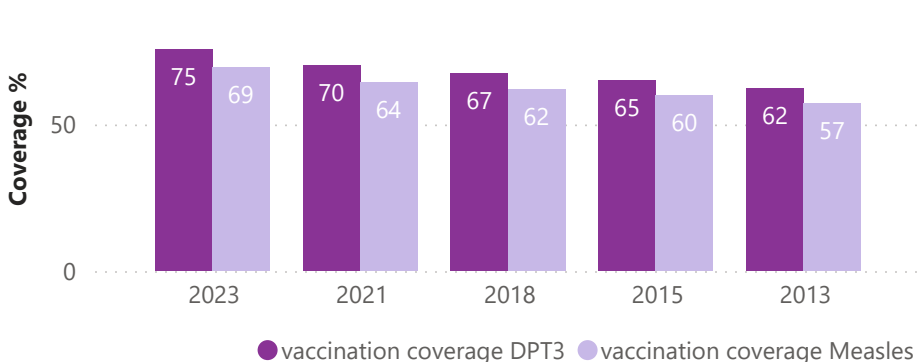

KEY INSIGHT

Nigeria's Under-5 mortality has improved by 14.2% since 2013, with about 313,000 children saved however, current rates remain 4x WHO targets. Vaccination coverage has reached 72%, but significant gaps persist in skilled birth attendants, maternal mortality has reduced since 2013 by 21% But it is still significantly high with an average of 610 maternal death per 100,000 live births Particularly in Northern Regions.

U-5 Mortality Trend (2013-2023)

Vaccination Coverage Over Time

Nigerian Maternal And Child Health

State And Regional Performance Analysis

Rivers

Best Performing State

Kogi

Worst Performing State

104.2

Gap Best-Worst state

1

WHO Standard...

Year

Select all

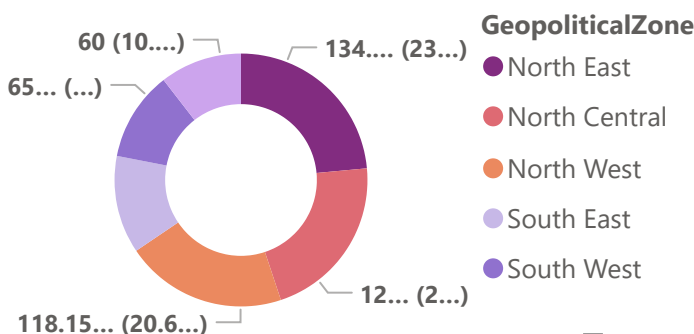

(Blank)

2013

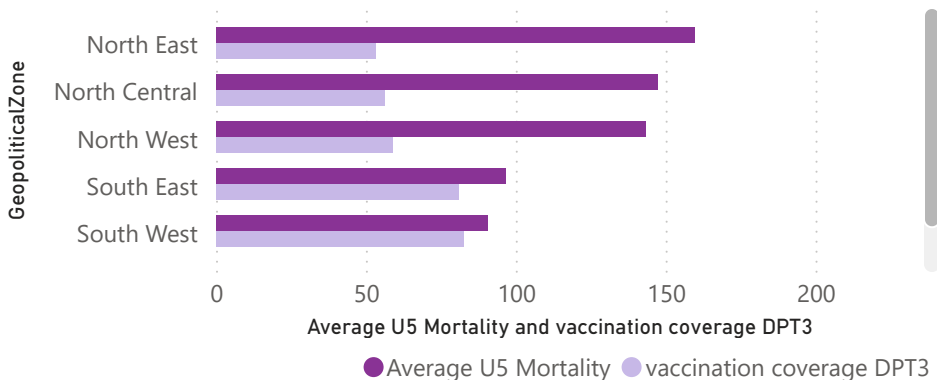

Key Insights

Northern States have 2.5x higher mortality rates than southern states. States with <60% vaccine coverage account for 65% of all under-5 deaths. 12 states have mortality rates above 150 and require urgent intervention

Gap From WHO Target By Geopolitical zone

Correlation Between Mortality And vaccine Coverage

Geopolitic...

☐ (Blank)

☐ North Ce...

☐ North East

☐ North West

☐ South East

☐ South So...

☐ South West

State Ranking Best 10

State	Average U5 Mortality	State rank U5 mortality
Rivers	65.00	1
Lagos	74.00	2
Bayelsa	84.25	3
Ekiti	88.20	4
Akwa Ibom	88.25	5
Delta	88.80	6
Cross River	89.75	7
Ondo	90.00	8
Edo	91.40	9
Total	85.50	10

State Ranking Worst 10

State	Average U5 Mortality	State rank U5 mortality
Borno	164.60	36
Bauchi	161.00	35
Gombe	160.25	34
Nasarawa	160.00	33
Yobe	159.20	32
Jigawa	158.80	31
Zamfara	158.00	30
Adamawa	157.20	29
Kwara	156.40	28
Taraba	155.40	27
Total	158.67	31